

MARSHALL COUNTY PAINT-OUT

Original works of historic county locations created to commemorate Alabama's Bicentennial and the year of Exploring Our Places.

Accepting artist applications for consideration through April 1st.

Please read before applying:

- Artists of any age may apply. No charge to participate.
- Artist must be from or reside in the state of Alabama.
- Selection of participants will be made by an independent jury from outside the county.
- Open to oil, acrylic, watercolor, pen & ink, mixed media – two dimensional. Canvas preferred.
- Each applicant must submit 3-4 photos of work or provide Face Book/website information for review by jury.
- Deadline for artist application is April 1st.
- Artists to be notified of selections by April 14th.
- Exhibit committee will pair artists with paint locations.
- Art sizes accepted will be 8x10; 11x14; 16x20 internal dimensions.
- Selected artists will be given a $50 stipend for supplies. Artists are responsible for any travel, art supplies, and other expenses incurred over the $50 stipend.
- Quick-Draws or Studies to be created on site the weekend of April 28 - April 30. Final work may be completed within a studio or en plein air.
- All pieces to be submitted as a finished product: matted and/or framed with professionally installed hanging hardware. All framing and hardware installation should be completed at Factory Surplus in Guntersville. Artists will receive a 10% discount on top of regular 25% discount for framing services and product.
- Deadline for completed works is May 19th at the Guntersville Museum. Multiple entries from an artist of one location will be accepted. One piece will be chosen for exhibit.
- The Exploring our Places exhibit committee reserves the right to exclude any final pieces not deemed acceptable.
- Each participating artist will give the exhibit rights to publish images of work.
- Completed works will become property of the Exploring Our Places Marshall County exhibition where they will be jointly displayed as a rotating exhibit in Albertville, Arab, Boaz, Grant and Guntersville.
- Participating artists will be part of an exclusive event for the Alabama Bicentennial and receive statewide recognition through various media outlets. In addition, artists will be promoted throughout the year during the exhibit rotation.
- Exhibit opening and kick-off for the Marshall County Bicentennial will be Thursday, May 25th, 5-7 pm at the Guntersville Museum.
